

Interested in Becoming a Food Advisory Committee Member for Spokane Regional Health District?

Spokane Regional Health District (SRHD) is looking for members to serve on its Food Advisory Committee. The 13-member committee is a cooperative effort between SRHD's Food Safety program and the local food industry. It helps in the development of educational materials and instructive programs, as well as the committee giving the health district input on food policies, procedures, regulations, and fees. The committee openings are for a Food Service Industry representative, Higher Education Institution representative, School District Food Program representative, and a Consumer representative.

This is a voluntary position and committee members must be willing to serve a two-year term and able to attend formal meetings on the first Wednesday of February, June, and November. In addition, members must be able to attend a special meeting in January for new member selection. If you are interested in becoming a committee member and would like an application sent to you, please contact SRHD's Food Safety program at (509) 324-1560, ext. 2, or visit our website at www.srhd.org/foodadvisory. Applications must be received by the health district no later than Dec. 31, 2018.
